

2016 Citizenship Washington Focus

*National 4-H Conference Center,
Chevy Chase, MD, July 9-16, 2016*

Program Overview

Citizenship Washington Focus is a 4-H leadership program for high school youth. Delegations from across the country attend this 6 day program at the National 4-H Youth Conference Center, located just outside Washington, D.C. The program is aimed at enriching young people's lives by broadening their appreciation and respect for themselves and others in the world. Participants attend workshops, committees, field trips and social events, giving them hands-on opportunities to learn and grow. Participants learn and practice skills that will make them better citizens and more successful individuals.

Eligible Participants

CWF is open to all Florida 4-H members 14 to 18 years old as of September 1, 2015.

Registration

- A $250 non-refundable deposit & registration form are due by August 15, 2015.
- Checks are made payable to the Florida 4-H Foundation. Deposits received after August 15 risk a higher fee and/or being added to a waiting list. Our price reflects an early-bird discount.
- Check and registration form are due to the State Events Office. Registration will be done on a first come - first serve basis. (FORM MAY BE FAXED, PLEASE FAX COPY OF CHECK THAT IS BEING SENT AS WELL)

Costs

The standard registration package for CWF is $1,000 per person plus transportation costs. Delegates and/or counties will be responsible for all costs. A $250 deposit must be submitted to the Florida 4-H Events Office with this form by August 15, 2015 made payable to the Florida 4-H Foundation. The remaining $750 and transportation costs will be due by May 1, 2016. 4-H will tentatively fly to and from DC, and a bus will be provided during the week of CWF. Transportation costs are expected to be between $200 and $350 per participant.
